

The Campbell McLaurin Foundation
for Hearing Deficiencies

Campbell McLaurin was appointed to Alberta's Supreme Court in 1942 and named Chief Justice of the Trial Division in 1952. He was the first Chancellor of the University of Calgary. Chief Justice McLaurin retired in 1968 and passed away in April 1981. The Campbell McLaurin Foundation for Hearing Deficiencies is a private charitable foundation established by his generous bequest with the objective of assisting people of lower income who have hearing deficiencies.
